

Sellers Botanical Expo 2022

Rhodo Direct Lisa West Use rhododendrons to create a beautiful outside space to relax in with stunning Rhododendrons. These low maintenance plants have transformed thousands of gardens for New Zealand homes. You can have a garden that you can manage, and everyone can enjoy.

Rekindle Creating and sharing resourcefulness by promoting the skills and knowledge we need for the wellbeing of planet and people. We transform local resources through care and craft. Classes they run include stool making, spoon carving, darning, felting, basket making, flax weaving and more

Templeton Daffodils Run by David and Letitha Adams, a lifetime of love and care has gone into daffodil breeding and cultivation, order now after looking at the blooms on show.

Christchurch Paeony A group that swap, share, sell and show these beautiful flowers.

Lilly Society Masses of lily bulbs, huge colourful and ready to plant now.

Canterbury Horticultural Society Need no introduction, 160 years of horticulture for Canterbury. Based in the Kiosk of the Botanic Gardens.

Magic Moss The Moss Man Allan Patterson

Tai Tapu Garden Club Friendly club, raffle, posies and they are running our café for you

The Artsy Creation Denise the outside picture frames are free spirit arty ,wild and unique in fact one off naturalizing creations. The free standing garden wreaths which have season plants which can be placed on a top of your garden table or on a little old table under the trees in fact were ever you choose. These are fun creations with selected plants that will give atmosphere to your house or garden and can be change for a Christmas display

Myra Yeban Bonsai trees, Indoor plants, Succulents and Cacti. An enthusiast whose hobby has meant that some need to be sold, you can be the winner here

Ian Rennie All day tool professional sharpening. Remember to bring your tools, book in Eventbrite to avoid missing out. These will be taken apart, sharpened cleaned and oiled ready for you to collect. Bring the correct cash for easy operation if you haven't booked. Scissors and secateurs $8 Edgers, Loppers and shears $15

Levin Spade makers NZ made spades, excellent long lasting, proceeds go to NZAGS

New Zealand Alpine Garden Society

information and plant stall. Two planted hypertufa troughs to raffle and Rhodo Direct vouchers

Joy and Nancy's Treasures Two Ashburton women who are addicted to treasures and other interesting plants, they sell what the love to grow. Trilliums, garden orchids, fritillaria and Erythroniums among other choice plants.

Alouette Nursery Sandi Leith has been the force behind Alouette for many years, and her collection of special tiny rhododendrons and woodland plants goes back much further still.

Hamish and Mika's Plants Overflowing from an incredible botanic garden of unusual plants, spares are sold. All profits go to the Steve Newall Memorial Fund to be used to bring overseas gardening luminaries to NZ, this year is Oron Peri, a specialist in bulbs and iris from Seeds of Peace. NZAGS.com for details.

Behind the Hedge Plant Co Kate and Sue are enthusiasts growing all sorts of little plants and perennials, they dabble in all sorts of plants and also grow fruit, asparagus and eggs. No one is sure how they fit it all in.

Alison's Alpines is a small hobby nursery, situated in Diamond Harbour, specialising in Alpines, Woodland plants and Bulbs. I like the challenge of growing unusual and rare plants and my aim is to offer "something different". Visits welcome but please ring first. 03 329 3124

Janine Young's Plants selling trilliums, fritillarias, spring bulbs and some woodland type plants. A hobby grower. I have sown a lot of seed this season so in a few years' time I will hopefully have some really choice plants available. My mother comes up with me and she helps me on the sales table. I have a passion for horse racing, having success this year.

Kate Maley's plants This year we will have a nice mix of early flowering special plants, including Dicentra, Erodium, Pulsatilla and other little treasures. I have been involved in the hort industry for many years and love growing plants for fun now.

Ortel raised beds, cold houses, plant supports, ferns, pleione orchids and plants. Many items raise funds for the Society, including spades from Levin spade makers. New small treasures plant nursery opening as stock comes available. Online sales coming soon. Suzanne Pickford's www.ortel.nz

Blue Mountain Nursery Pleonie orchids, display and sales to raise funds for NZAGS.